Kaua'i police issue nearly 60 misdemeanor citations to-date

LĪHU'E — Kaua'i police have issued almost 60 misdemeanor citations to-date in relation to violations of the county's COVID-19 curfew and stay-at-home emergency orders, as well as the state's 14-day travel quarantine order.

Individuals who are issued a citation during an emergency proclamation, whether it be for violating a curfew, stay-at-home or 14-day quarantine order, will have to appear in court.

Violators could face a fine of up to $5,000 and/or one year in jail.

The majority of the citations issued pertained to curfew violations but the Kaua'i Police Department has also ramped up its efforts in addressing violations related to the county's emergency stay-at-home order and the state's 14-day quarantine order.

There has been a total of 15 citations on Kaua'i beaches, for example, issued to individuals who were violating COVID-19 emergency orders.

The number of physical arrests for violations to the state's 14-day quarantine order remain the same at three.
